Kello and good afternoon! I'm Runagata Kyoko ☆
Thank you very much for reading Reforms Presents volume 1
until now! ☺ (´ω´)

Well, it's really something for volume 1...! It's volume 1! And it's still confusing! I've already got a nosebleed! I'm sooo happy! ☺

The series about the love (and also stupid) stories of those two will continue bit by bit. I can't make a large-scale story of the inventor and the son of the Prime Minister. I'm also getting a bit confused! ☺

Drawing is fun! ☺ When I read it again, I can smile by myself
"chuckle" (sweat). It is delightful to see that my comic can reach every one of you! (´´)✧

The right for a

but I have a little for glasses! ☺

That's why, when I draw Reforms, I was really happy! ☺

To tell you the truth, when the glasses broke in chapter 2,
I had to make a new design for the glasses in the third chapter!
And you guys started about them or not! ☺

Well, it's not a big deal, but I just want to say that! ☺

It's just that there aren't many people who talk about it, so I felt that I did it as you and decided to write about it in here.
